

Check for Understanding

Can you help your friend find the right continents to visit? Read each statement carefully. Use your knowledge about the world's continents to answer each question. Circle your answer.

- Your friend would like to spend his or her summer vacation on a continent that is near the Arctic Circle and home to both Russia and China. You tell your friend to travel to:
A. Asia                      C. Europe
B. Africa                    D. North America
- Your friend would like to travel to a continent that has the Atlantic and Pacific Ocean on each side and is north of the equator. You tell your friend to travel to:
A. North America      C. Africa
B. South America      D. Europe
- Your friend would like to travel to a continent that has the Atlantic and Pacific Ocean on each side and is south of the equator. You tell your friend to travel to:
A. North America      C. Africa
B. South America      D. Europe
- Your friend would like to see lots of savanna regions and would like to go on a safari. You tell your friend to travel to:
A. North America      C. Africa
B. South America      D. Europe
- Your friend would like to see kangaroos and would like to travel to a continent that is far south but is still warm. You tell your friend to travel to:
A. Antarctica            C. Africa
B. Australia              D. Europe
- Your friend would like to travel to a continent with castles and see England and France. You tell your friend to travel to:
A. Antarctica            C. Africa
B. Australia              D. Europe
- Your friend would like to travel to Japan and China. What continent should he or she visit?
A. Europe                      C. South America
B. Asia                         D. North America
- Your friend would like to see the pyramids of Egypt. You tell your friend to go to:
A. Europe                      C. South America
B. Africa                       D. North America
- Your friend would like to see lots of ice and the South Pole. You tell your friend to go to:
A. Antarctica              C. Europe
B. Africa                       D. North America
- Your friend would like to travel to see the Grand Canyon in Arizona. You tell your friend to go to:
A. North America      C. Europe
B. South America      D. Africa

Extend Your Thinking

- Which continent would you most like to visit? Explain.

---

---

---

- Which continent would you least like to visit? Explain.

---

---

---