

Context Clues

Read Komodo Dragons (pages 235–245). Then answer the questions below.

1 What is being defined in these two sentences? “Komodo dragons hunt and eat other animals. Animals that eat other animals are called predators.”

- A Komodo dragons
- B Hunt
- C Animals
- D Predators

2 The passage says, “Komodo dragons are rare animals. They live on only a few islands.” What does the word rare mean in this context?

- F Valuable
- G Seldom seen or found
- H Unusually good
- J Not cooked much

3 Komodo dragons are all of the following except —

- A lizards
- B reptiles
- C fire-breathers
- D monitors

4 The Komodo dragon preys on other animals. What does this mean?

- F It eats other animals.
- G It lives with other animals.
- H It is friends with other animals.
- J It shares with other animals.

5 Look at page 238. What is a burrow? Explain how you know.

burrows, 1 pt

an underground hole dug & used by an animal