

Three Turkeys

The night before Thanksgiving When I had gone to bed. I heard three turkey gobblers and this is what they said.

The first turkey said, "I think that I will go and hide behind the haystack where no one will know."

The second turkey said, "I think I'll find a tree and hide up in the branches where no one will see."

The third turkey said, "I think it would be fun to hide the farmer's hatchet then run, run, run, run."

Then on Thanksgiving morning when the farmer came around, those three turkey gobblers could not be found.
