

How does air help plants and animals?

Put an X on the thing that does not need air to live.

Directions: Look at the two pictures in each row. Decide which picture shows something that does not need air to live. Put a large X on that picture.

Home Activity: Say each of the following pairs and ask your child to identify which thing needs air to live: fish/water; rock/tree; child/chair; dish/cat.