

U.S. Map: Spotlight on Resources

Maps are useful tools for understanding how people live and work. For example, maps can display industry and resource distribution in specific areas. The United States is a large country, so its many resources and businesses are widely distributed. Use the icons on the state map below to help you understand how many people in each state make their living.

Check for Understanding

Use the map above and what you know about each U.S. state, and circle the correct answer to the following questions.

1. Lobster is a key part of the fishing industry in the state of:
 - a. Oregon
 - b. California
 - c. Maine
 - d. Georgia
 - e. Washington
2. Orange growing, harvesting, shipping, and orange juice production are important industries in the states of:
 - a. Texas and Oklahoma
 - b. Oregon and Alabama
 - c. Florida and Arizona
 - d. California and Florida
 - e. California and South Carolina

(continued)