Spelling Test -- "Blame it on the Wolf"

Name: _____   # _____

Part A: Complete the following analogies using your spelling words.

1. you've : you have :: _____ : we have

2. you'll : you will :: _____ : they will

3. _____ : you would :: she'd : she would

4. we will : _____ :: you will : you'll

5. he had : _____ :: she had : she'd

Part B: Use the spelling word that best completes each sentence.

6. Did you know that _____ almost April?

7. "_____ better remember to do my homework so I don't lose recess," said Stephen.

8. The mom told the daughter that _____ have to clean her room before she goes to the movies.

9. The parents told their children _____ like moving once they see their new house.

10. If he continues playing video games, _____ be late for church!

Part C: Write the spelling words that best complete the paragraph.

10-15.   "_____ going on? Why is it so bright?" said the chick.

Then it kicked off the last piece of shell and looked around. "_____

see what my brothers and sisters are doing," the wet chick said. It used its wobbly legs to walk around for the very first time. He found another chick sticking its beak out from its cracked shell. "_____ squished! I want to stretch out," chirped his little sister from inside her shell. He went over next to her and put his head on her shell.

"_____ help you out," he told her. And _____ just what he did! Then he guarded her as she took a nap, exhausted from breaking out of her shell.

Part D: Unscramble the words.

16.   v u c e ' o l d   _____

17.   l t o n d ' w u   _____

18.   e ' w l v d u o   _____

19.   d u n l h t ' s o   _____

20.   t o e d ' n s   _____

BONUS:

What is the scientific name for an animal with a backbone?

_____

Part G: Write a paragraph (5-7 sentences) using as many spelling words as possible. Include a topic sentence, details, and a closing sentence.

Underline any spelling words you use.

Theme: Fairy Tale   OR   Baby Chicks ☺

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

✓   Reread your paragraph and edit it. Check off that you used:

   o   complete sentences
   o   proper grammar and punctuation
   o   correct spelling
   o   punctuation

Sign your name (in cursive) on the line below stating that you've checked your work:

_____

Spelling Test -- "Blame it on the Wolf"

Name: _____Answers_____   # _____

Part A: Complete the following analogies using your spelling words.

1.   you've : you have :: _____we've_____ : we have

2.   you'll : you will :: _____they'll_____ : they will

3.   _____you'd_____ : you would :: she'd : she would

4.   we will : _____we'll_____ :: you will : you'll

5.   he had : _____he'd_____ :: she had : she'd

Part B: Use the spelling word that best completes each sentence.

6.   Did you know that _____it's_____ almost April?

7.   "_____I'd_____ better remember to do my homework so I don't lose recess," said Stephen.

8.   The mom told the daughter that _____she'll_____ have to clean her room before she goes to the movies.

9.   The parents told their children _____they'd_____ like their new house because they can ride their dirt bikes out back.

10. If he continues playing video games, _____he'll_____ be late for church!

Spelling Test -- "Blame it on the Wolf"

Part C: Write the spelling words that best complete the paragraph.

10- "_____What's_____ going on? Why is it so bright?" said the chick.

Then it kicked off the last piece of shell and looked around. "_____Let's_____ see what my brothers and sisters are doing," the wet chick said. It used its wobbly legs

to walk around for the very first time. He found another chick sticking its beak out from its cracked shell. "_____I'm_____ squished! I want to stretch out," chirped his little sister from inside her shell. He went over next to her and put his head on her shell.

"_____I'll_____ help you out," he told her. And that's just he did! Then he guarded her as she took a nap, exhausted from breaking out of her shell.

Part D: Unscramble the words.

16. v u c e ' o l d   _Could've_
17. l t o n d ' w u   _wouldn't_
18. e ' w l v d u o   _would've_
19. d u n l h t ' s o   _shouldn't_
20. t o e d ' n s   _doesn't_

BONUS:

What is the scientific name for an animal with a backbone?

_____vertebrate_____

Part G: Write a paragraph (5-7 sentences) using as many spelling words as possible. Include a topic sentence, details, and a closing sentence.

Underline any spelling words you use.

Theme: Fairy Tale   OR   Baby Chicks ☺

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

✓ Reread your paragraph and edit it. Check off that you used:

  ○ complete sentences
  ○ proper grammar and punctuation
  ○ correct spelling
  ○ punctuation

Sign your name (in cursive) on the line below stating that you've checked your work:

_____