

Grade 1
Phonics Reader 5

Wet

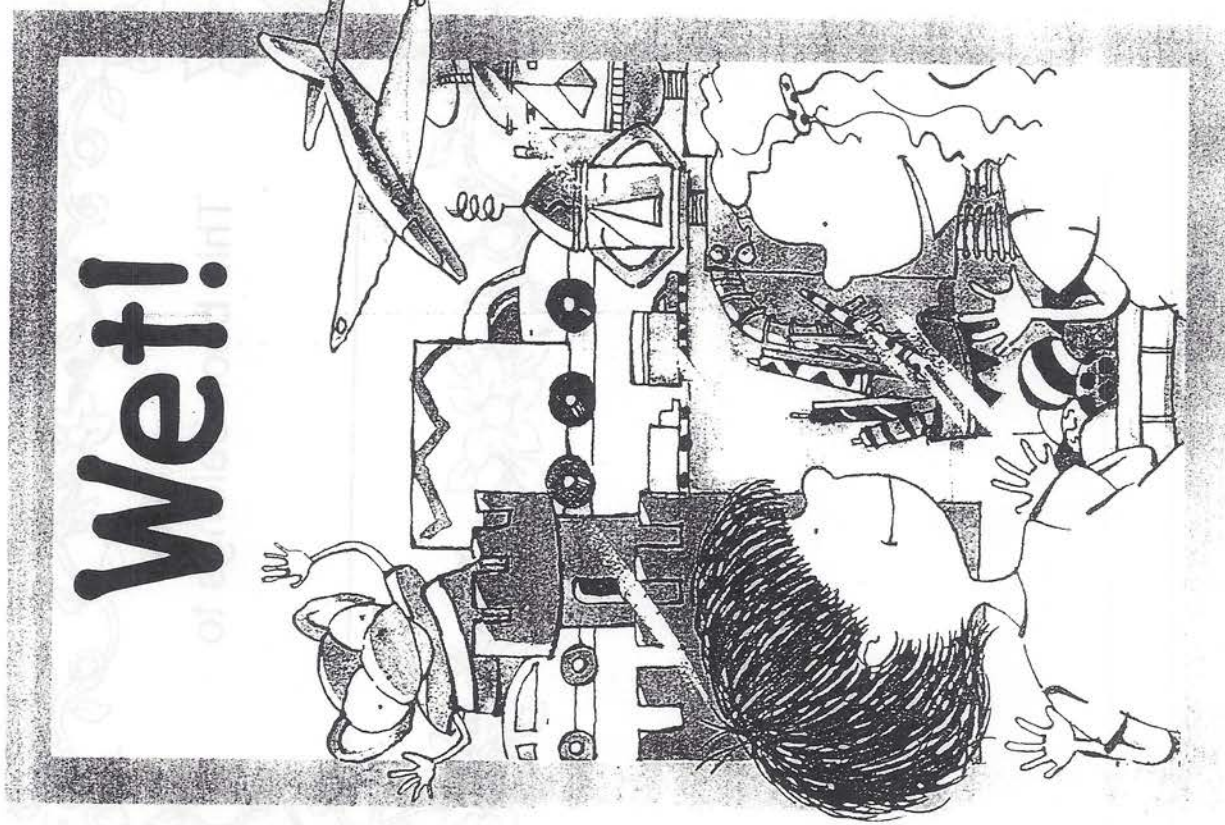

by Judy Veramendi
illustrated by
Marie-Louise Gay

Phonics Skills:

- Initial consonants j, v, w
- Word families -et, -en

Scott Foresman

Wet!

by Judy Veramendi
illustrated by Marie-Louise Gay

This book belongs to _____ Phonics for Families: This book gives practice reading words that begin with the letters j, v, and w; words that end with -en and -er; and the high-frequency words get, one, two, three, we, and what. Read the book aloud with your child. Then ask your child to go back through the story and find all the words that rhyme with get.

Phonics Skills: Initial consonants j, v, w; Word families -er, -en

High-Frequency Words: get, one, two, three, we, what

And we can get wet!

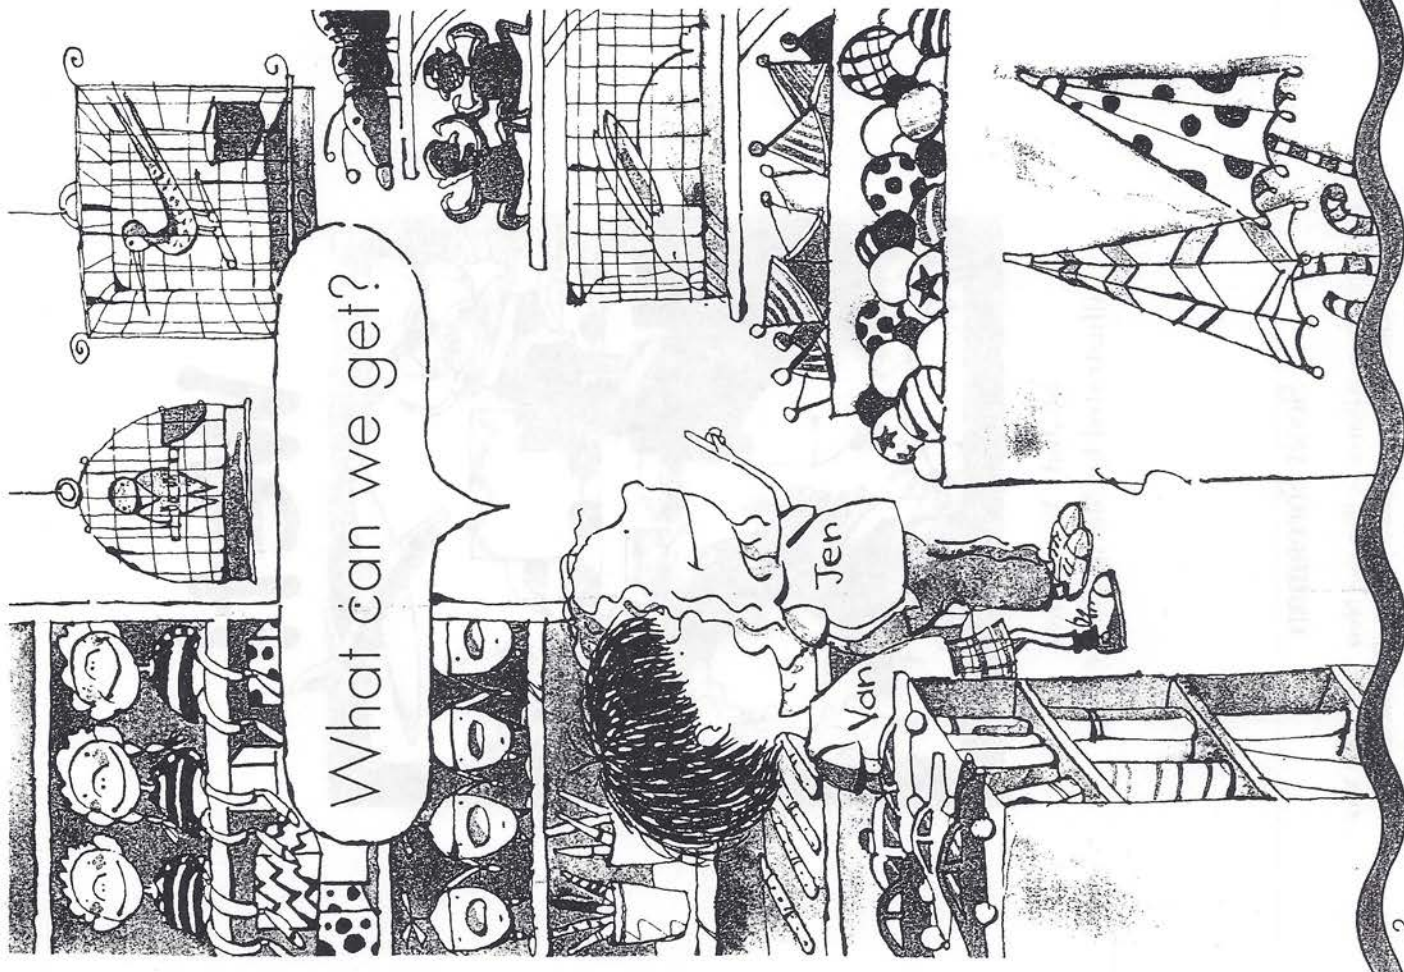

Wet!

by Judy Veramendi
illustrated by Marie-Louise Gay

Scott Foresman

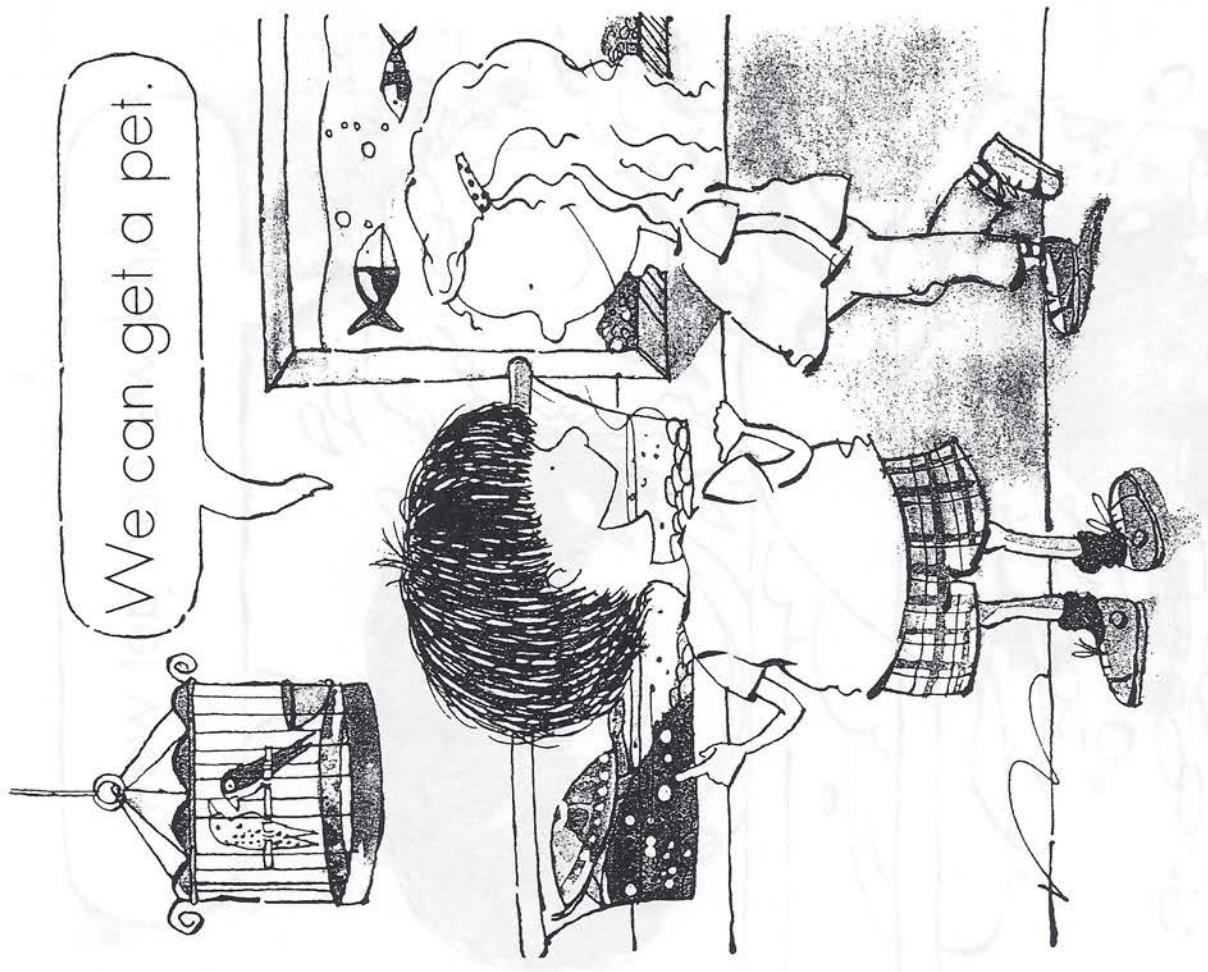

Editorial Offices: Glenview, Illinois • New York, New York
Sales Offices: Reading, Massachusetts • Duluth, Georgia
Glenview, Illinois • Carrollton, Texas • Menlo Park, California

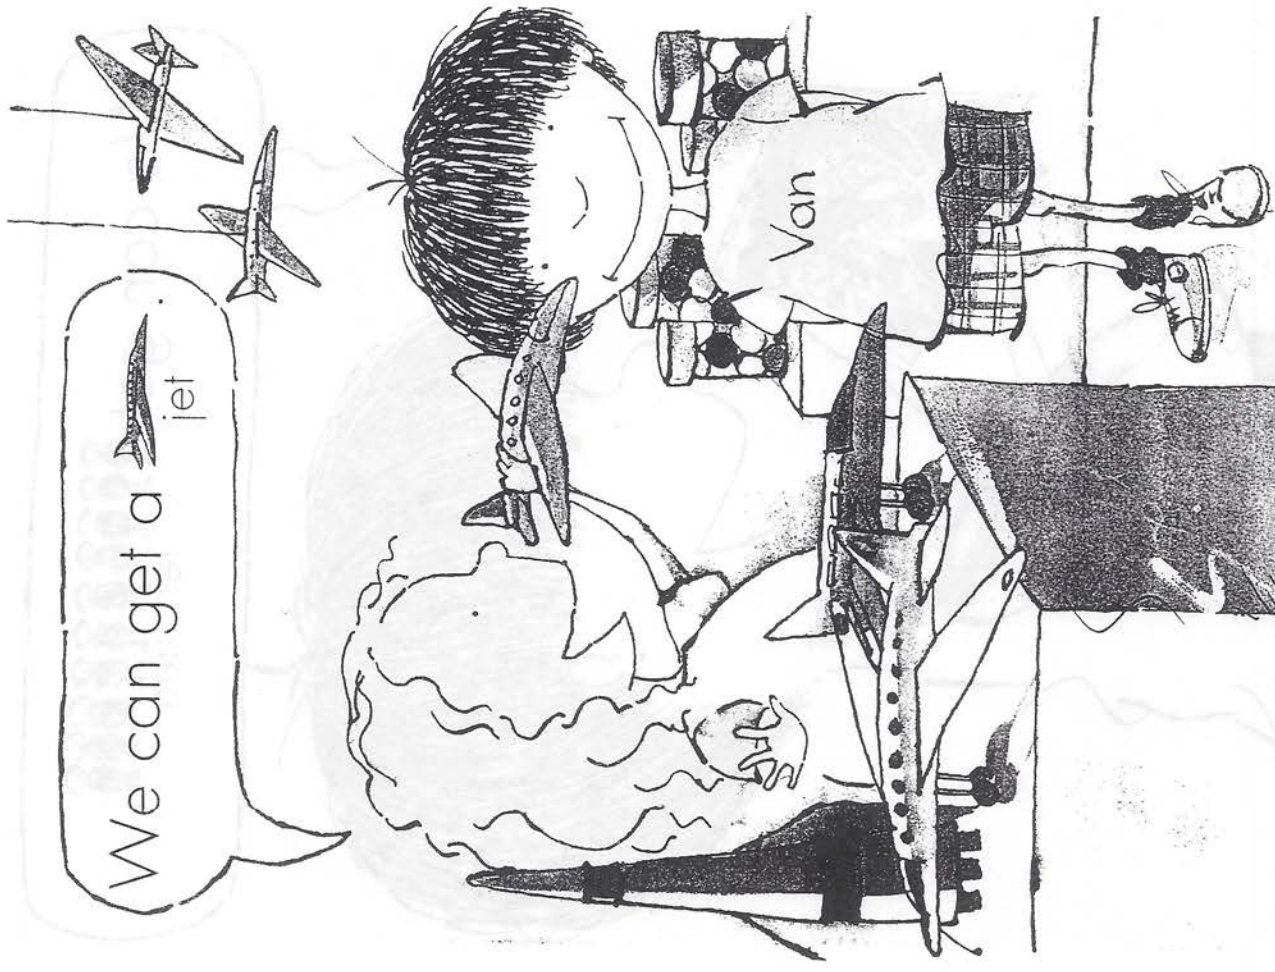

What can we get?

Jen

Yan

We can get a pet.

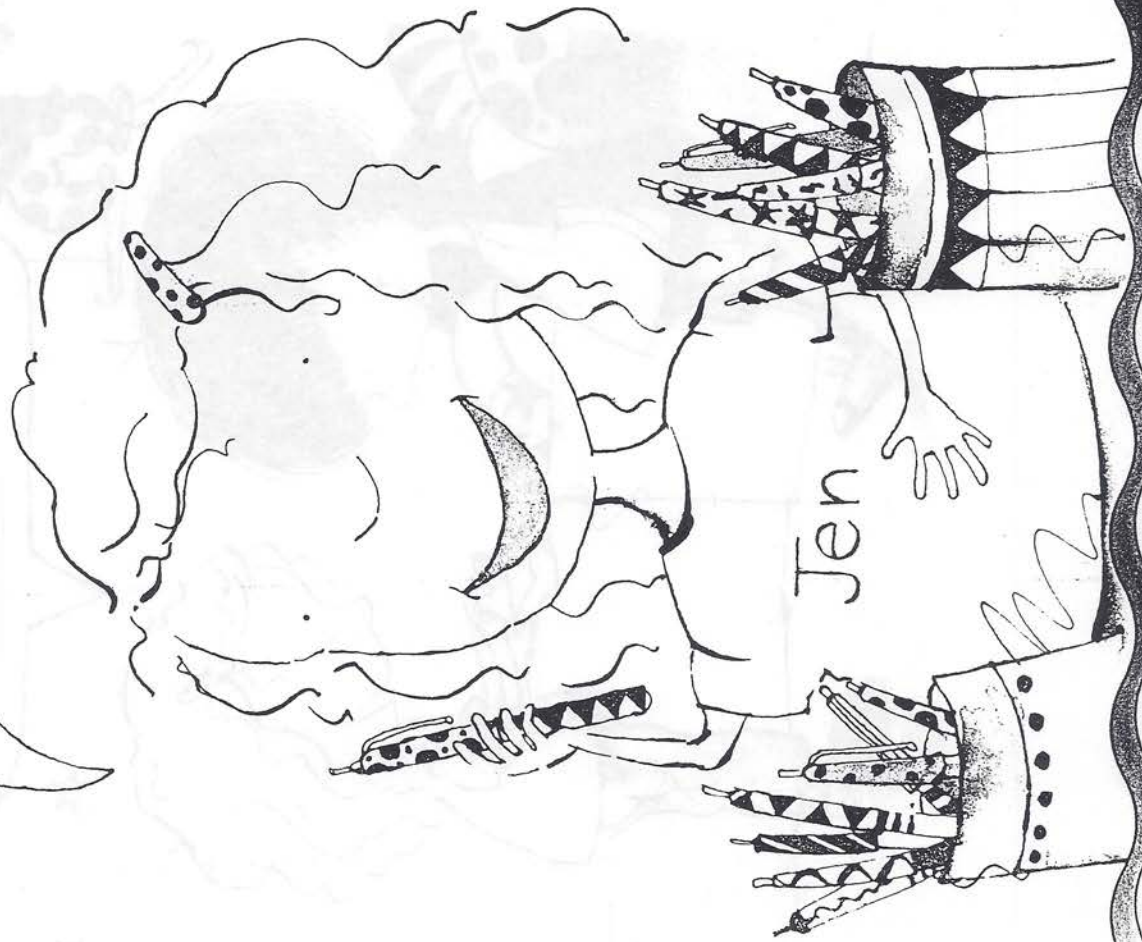

We can get a jet

One, two, three!

We can get a  pen

We can get  ten men

