

Wimpy Words

It was very hot this weekend. We were very, very hot, too, so we went outdoors. We went in the sprinkler. The sprinkler was very cold. We got very wet. The ice-cream man went down our street, so we went out to meet him. Our ice-cream man is very kind. He waited while we went inside to get money. Our mom was very mad because we went inside with wet feet, but she was very forgiving and gave us money for ice cream anyway. The ice cream was very, very, very delicious!
