I Am Growing

All About Me:
My Growth

Draw a picture of yourself as a baby.
Then write about how you have grown.

Now I weigh _____ pounds.

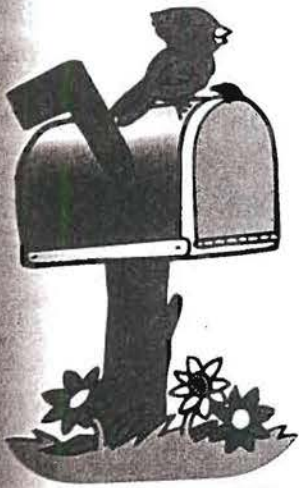

I am _____ feet _____ inches tall.

Parent: Help your child measure himself or herself and record the information on this page.

My Home

All About Me:
My Address

Draw a picture of your home. Write your address.

My address is

Four sets of handwriting lines, each consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Parent: It may be helpful for you to write your address on another sheet of paper for your child to copy when completing this page. While children should be able to recite their addresses for safety purposes, it is not expected that a child this age would be able to write his or her address independently.
