Writing Prompt: Money

People have used different forms of money for thousands of years. Today, people still use money to get the things they need or want. Draw a picture of things you can buy with money. Write about some ways money can help you meet your needs.

Notes for Home: Your child learned about different forms of money.

Home Activity: With your child, design a coin that he or she can earn and exchange for special privileges in your home. Cut a circle from cardboard and cover it with tinfoil. Then transfer your design to the coin using a capped ballpoint pen. Help your child transfer the design without tearing the foil.
